ONE hears expressions of wonder that so clean and well conducted a sonic conclave for Arizona was held paper as the Tucson Star exerts so several years ago. The natural interior arrangement of the cave made it little influence through its editorial an ideal place for secret lodge work, columns. The following extract the beauties of the ceremonies being Higgins claimant; the Galena lode from that paper will explain that tion arranged especially for the occaunfortunate fact, as it will be seen at sion. once that the statements made therein are utterly untrue, except, of course that the committee met at Benson and that delegates were didate for the office of elected: "The democratic county central committee of Cochise county met at Benson and elected the delegates to the democratic territorial convention, and instructed them how to vote. That is not very good democracy. The democratic voters of Cochise county are too independent to allow half a dozen subject to the action of the Republidemocrats to do their voting for can County Convention.

THE sermon et the Episcopal service yesterday morning was on the well known subject of the Pharisee and Publican, and the Bishop, who delivered the discourse, made the most of the applicat. There are the well known subject of the Pharthe most of the subject. There are tracts:

First—40 acres, unsurveyed, on west slope several standpoints from which this question of the self righteous man and the man who acknowledges his own defects, can be looked at, and it presents a subject which at, and it presents a subject which from a social aspect is well worthy of consideration. Society in a measure makes the pharisee, and the result of the pernicious and unfair classification is seen every day. The man with his position, his accumulated wealth, his arrogance, we all know, and we know, too, of the tyrrany, the insolence of office, the utter refusal to extend the hand of help to misfortune that are characteristic of the modern pharisee. But there are other features even more detestable in our pharisee, one, the impatience of opposition, the intention to crush the unfortunate being who ventures to oppose his purpose, or ventures to oppose his purpose, or to thwart his greed of gain. All this we see, and yet serene and recorded and noted for report to the Commissioner of the General Land Office.
